Office of the Director
Florida Highway Patrol

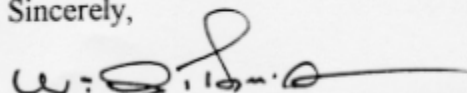

While this letter is somewhat late I still felt that I ought to write you, even late, about my recent experience.

On the night of September 1, 2001 I was driving my wife's new car with which I was unfamiliar with. I was on I-95 when I was pulled over by Trooper Boehm, I.D. No. 1781-1413, Troop D. I had the front lights on but I was unaware that I had to turn on the light switch in order for the taillights to come on.

I can say without reservation that although I have had prior experiences with some law enforcement officials I have never encountered one so courteous as Trooper Boehm. Even if he had written me a ticket requiring a penalty I would still be writing this letter.

Finally both my family and I wish to let you know that if Trooper Boehm is a typical representative of the Florida State Trooper you no doubt have a fine organization.

Sincerely,

Wm. G. Thoms
