

William Vowler

Dear Sir,

Nov. 5th

We are visiting your country at the NOAA-Wakulla RV park on the Gulf.

Today I was driving near Panama when I inadvertently exceeded the speed limit. I wasn't concentrating! A police car pulled me over and officer Herbert Brown told me what I had done. He was very polite and explained I had broken the rules. He gave me a warning.

Coming from Maryland, I hope our troopers are as polite and considerate as Officer Brown.

I want to commend him. He makes a wonderful impression and is a splendid example of a fine officer.

I will not speed again.

Warm regards,

Charissa Vowler
