Dear Trooper Bassett,

Sometimes words seem so inadequate when someone does so much. That is how I feel as I write this letter. I want you to know you are an answer to our prayers. We have tried for many months to provide car seats for our clients who are involved in our Parenting Program and have been unsuccessful.

Thank you for all you have done to assist us in obtaining the car seats, which you so graciously delivered yesterday. And huge thank you for helping me unload them in that awful heat. You certainly went over and above the call of duty.

We are so excited to be able to provide these seats to our clients who complete our Program.

Let me also thank you in advance for teaching our class on Car Seat and Home Safety.

Again we thank you from the bottom of our hearts on behalf of our clients who are unable to purchase these seats on their own.

God Bless you,
