Dear Sir:

I am writing this letter to congratulate one of your officers. His name is Trooper J. D. Deboom.

I know all too often most people like to only complain and not appreciate you're your troopers do to save our lives. This officer treated me with a lot of understanding and compassion in a time of grief for me. I appreciated his professionalism and just the manner in which he handled the situation. I am sure he is a valuable asset to your organization. I want his super to know what a good job he is doing and also how much all of you are appreciated!

Thank you again for doing a good job and having troopers like Mr. Deboom!

Sincerely yours,
