Details:

Since the release of WRAP 4200, FLHSMV has received reports of errors during renewals and transfers of heavy trucks. Since the last deployment on 12/21/20 several bugs have been reported and FLHSMV has worked hard to get the issues corrected. These system bugs have been fixed and will go into Production during the release.

FRVIS

- Expiration date not calculating correctly for registrant with a January birth month
- Registration replacement transaction failing for previous biennial
- Conflict with expiration date and tax month calculation during a Regular Registration Renewal
- FRVIS had incorrect late fees for some renewals.

MVRN File:

- MVRN had incorrect late fees and antique vehicle fees for some renewals. The MVRN files for February 2021, March 2021, and April 2021 have been reran and released to the vendors on January 26, 2021.

Virtual Office & KIOSK:

- Expiration Date not calculating correctly in Virtual Office and KIOSK for January Date of Birth

E-Comm:

- Some transactions errored out from the counties. These transactions were reprocessed, and the registrations were mailed from Tallahassee on February 5, 2021.

Thank you in advance for your cooperation and assistance with our enhancement efforts. We will keep you updated on our progress and do the best we can to minimize the impact to you and your customers.
