Details:

WRAP 7829 - When processing a transfer of registration for a non-exempt vehicle and insurance is not found on the database, FRVIS will require insurance be entered for that vehicle and follow the path of an FR8 sanction creation and verification.

EFS/ETR transactions currently require insurance at the time of purchase which includes transferring a registration. Florida statute 320.02(5)(a) requires insurance be purchased for a vehicle prior to registering the vehicle in Florida. The insurance information being presented must provide coverage at the time of registration for the specific vehicle. After registration, the insurance information entered for newly acquired vehicles registered by the dealer or a metal license plate transferred from another vehicle will be verified with the insurance company and follow the path of an FR8 sanction creation and verification.

If the insurance company denies coverage was in force for the vehicle at the time of registration, an FR8 sanction will generate and the owner risks having their driver license and/or registration suspended.
