

MOVE OVER

or slow down for emergency lights.

Social Media Posts

Facebook

Move over or slow down for emergency lights so that everyone can Arrive Alive! #MoveOverFL

Moving over for stopped emergency and service vehicles not only save lives, it makes Florida a safer place to live and travel. #MoveOverFL

Florida's Move Over Law: motorists MUST move over a lane or slow down for vehicles stopped on the roadside helping motorists or providing services. #MoveOverFL

Crashes due to Move Over violations are 100% preventable. Don't put the safety of law enforcement, first responders and service providers at risk - #MoveOverFL.

The roadside is an extremely dangerous work environment. Protect those assisting motorists on our highways and MOVE OVER! #MoveOverFL

Did you know that the Move Over Law was enacted in 2002 to help protect those who provide critical services to motorists on the roadside? #MoveOverFL

If you are unable to move over a lane for a stopped emergency or service vehicle, slow down to 20 mph below the posted speed limit. #MoveOverFL

Twitter:

Move Over, Florida! Be courteous, obey the law and, most importantly, save a life. #MoveOverFL

Do your part to protect those providing critical services on Florida's roadside – Move Over, Florida! #MoveOverFL

Failure to move over for stopped emergency and service vehicles can have life threatening consequences. Move Over, Florida! #MoveOverFL

Imagine if your office was on the roadside. Move Over, Florida! #MoveOverFL

#MoveOverFL - Its common sense, common courtesy and lifesaving.

Those providing important services to motorists on the roadside are vulnerable. Help keep them safe - #MoveOverFL