impairment. Major life activities include, but are not limited to, walking, working, seeing, hearing, speaking, breathing, learning, caring for oneself, sitting, standing, lifting, reading, and performing manual tasks.

III. POLICY

The DHSMV assures access to customers, prospective customers and other stakeholders with disabilities, to include building access and access to electronic services. The Department will provide reasonable accommodations to ensure that services, programs and activities are readily accessible to those with disabilities.

IV. ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

A. Division of Administrative Services

1. To maintain a position of External ADA Coordinator for customers, prospective customers and other stakeholders;
2. The External ADA Coordinator will distribute pertinent information and coordinate technical assistance as needed to ensure physical and electronic access for customers with disabilities.
3. The External ADA Coordinator, in conjunction with the Internal ADA Coordinator, will ensure that all department practices and any provision of reasonable accommodations requested will comply with ADA requirements.

B. Supervisory Responsibility

1. Supervisors must immediately bring any request for access issues or any specific request for a reasonable accommodation regarding access issues from non DHSMV members that they receive to the attention of their chain of command, and to the External ADA Coordinator.

V. PROCEDURES

A. Duty to Accommodate

The Department will, upon request, and after consultation with the Internal ADA and External ADA Coordinator, along with the guidance of the Office of General Counsel, provide a reasonable accommodation to the known physical or mental limitations of a customer with a disability, unless the accommodation would fundamentally alter the nature of the Department's mission, cause significant difficulty or expense, or otherwise impose an undue hardship. Examples of reasonable accommodation may include, but are not limited to:

1. Making facilities accessible to a person with a disability;
2. Acquiring or modifying equipment or devices; and
3. Modifying exams or training materials.

B. Complaint of Discrimination

Any customer, prospective customer or stakeholder who believes he or she has been unlawfully discriminated against on the basis of disability may file a complaint with the External ADA Coordinator, the DHSMV Risk Manager in the Bureau of Office Services. The External ADA Coordinator may be reached at the Neil Kirkman Building, 2900 Apalachee Parkway, Tallahassee, FL 32399-0500, telephone (850) 617-3161. The External ADA Coordinator will then consult with the Internal ADA Coordinator and the Office of the General Counsel to form a timely response to the complainant. Written complaints will receive written replies. Oral complaints will receive oral replies.
