A. The following is a list of documents required to satisfy or reassign liens under the following situations:
   - Estate is Administered
   - Estate is not Administered
   - Tenancy by the Entirety

1. Letters of Administration, if estate is probated, or
2. A photocopy of the will if a will exists and
   A photocopy of the death certificate for the deceased.
3. The lien satisfaction on the Certificate of Title, or if the title is not available, form HSMV 82260, or if the lien needs to be reassigned, sections 1 and 3 of form HSMV 82139.

B. The following is a list of persons authorized to release or reassign liens.
   - The Personal Representative
   - The Surviving Spouse
   - All heirs

Miscellaneous Information

1. When the proof of ownership is signed over to an individual and the individual dies before Certificate of Title is applied for in their name, follow the instructions that apply as if the Certificate of Title were issued in the name of the deceased.
2. If the death certificate is in a language other than English, it must be accompanied by an interpretation.
3. Copies of court orders or Letters of Administration are not required to be certified.
4. General, limited, or durable powers of attorney made by an owner of a motor vehicle or vessel are viewed as null and void upon their death.
5. If a Certificate of Title is in the name of two individuals, joined by “and”, one is deceased and the surviving co-owner cannot locate the deceased co-owner's heir(s), a court order must be obtained.

6. An out-of-state address is acceptable, when following deceased instructions.

7. Stepchildren are not considered lineal descendants. A Chart of lineal descendants is attached as Exhibit D. Adopted children are considered lineal descendants per Section 732.108, Florida Statutes.

8. If the will specifies that a specific heir receives the motor vehicle or mobile home, that person must take title in their name, unless they are the surviving spouse. If the will specifies multiple heirs receive the motor vehicle or mobile home, then either all heirs or just one heir must take title in their name. If it is decided that only one heir will take title, all other heirs must sign over their interest. It is acceptable for the heir (as named in the will) to add another name to the title at the time they are applying for title in their name.

9. A license plate may be transferred to the surviving spouse upon the death of the owner of a vehicle, unless the decedent owned a license plate that required a special status, such as a Disabled Veteran, Wheelchair, etc. See Procedure RS-05 for more information.

10. A Certificate of Title may be issued with the names joined by “And” along with the wording “With Rights of Survivorship.” If one of the owners of the motor vehicle dies, his or her share of the motor vehicle automatically goes to the surviving co-owner. A joint tenant (titled with “and” along with the wording “with rights of survivorship”) cannot use a will to leave his or her share of the joint tenancy property (motor vehicle) to someone else.

11. A Certificate of Title may be issued with the names joined by “Or” along with the wording “With Rights of Survivorship.” However, it would not be necessary to add the wording “With Rights of Survivorship” along with “Or,” since the surviving co-owner automatically receives all rights to the vehicle (see Exhibit B).

12. When an application is for a “Life Estate/Remainder Person,” “Tenancy by the Entirety,” or “With Rights of Survivorship,” in which there are two or more customers, select a legal description from the drop-down box during the title transaction. This will identify the relationship between the vehicle owners. If no legal ownership description is designated, tab through this new field leaving the default value of No Legal Ownership Description. Whenever a legal ownership description is chosen, it will print on the title with the owner names and an abbreviation of the description will print with the names on the 82041.

The following describes how to complete the form HSMV 82040 when selecting one of the above listed legal descriptions:

Life Estate/Remainder Person

The name of the life estate person should be shown in the “owner’s” area of the form. The remainder person should be shown in the “co-owner’s” area. You must still choose “and” or “or”, prior to choosing “Life Estate/Remainder Person” as the legal description. Only the life estate person would be required to sign the application for title, as the remainder person would only be a beneficiary.

With Rights of Survivorship

The owner must be shown on the form as the “owner.” The additional person would be the co-owner and must be shown in the “co-owner’s” area of the form. You must still choose “and” or “or,” prior to choosing “With Rights of Survivorship” as the legal description. Both owners must sign the application for title.

Tenancy by the Entirety

The owner must be shown on the form as the “owner.” The co-owner must be shown in the “co-owner’s” area of the form. You must still choose “and” prior to choosing “Tenancy by The Entirety” as the 13. Pursuant to Section 732.802, Florida Statutes, a surviving heir who intentionally kills or participates in the death of a decedent is not entitled to any benefits of the decedent's estate.

14. When a sole owner of a company listed as owner on the title dies, follow the appropriate instructions as if the title were in the deceased person's name.

15. If the owner of a motor vehicle dies and has no heirs, this procedure CANNOT be followed (see Procedure TL-07).

16. If the owner of a motor vehicle is deceased and the lienholder repossesses his/her vehicle, refer to Procedure TL-23.

17. A will may reference or specify a separate piece of paper or list for disposal or distribution of the person's tangible personal property. This list may have been created after the execution of the will and would only require the signature of the testator. The signature of the testator would be acceptable without witnesses.

18. A penalty fee is not due on deceased applications.

19. Pertinent Questions to Ask and a Flow Chart Directory are attached as Exhibit A.

20. Flow Charts are attached as Exhibit B.

21. Additional definitions are attached as Exhibit C.

Frequently Asked Questions

Q. Why would this not apply to a title if the owner of record is only in the deceased name and the surviving spouse wants title in their name?
